

SPIROMETRY

LR Respiratory Training

13/02/2019 09:00-16:30

The Canalside, Marsh Lane, Bridgwater, TA6 6LQ

<http://thecanalside.co.uk/home/>

9:00-9:30 Registration & opportunity to speak to sponsors

09:30 Performing spirometry

Indications and contraindications

Preparing the equipment and the patient

Performing spirometry accurately according to recommendations

Technical acceptability and reproducibility

10:45 Coffee Break

11:00 Performing spirometry

Recognising errors in spirometry group work

Introduction to the measurements obtained from spirometry

Spirometry Practical (please bring your spirometer)

ARTP register- available routes

12:30 Lunch

13:00 Interpretation of spirometry

Checking spirometry is fit for interpretation

Interpreting the graphs

Interpreting the numbers

Recognising spirometry patterns: normal, obstruction, restriction, combined

2:30 Coffee

2:45 Interpretation of spirometry

Identifying significant reversibility & its relevance

Considering the findings in the context of the patient to support a diagnosis

Writing a useful report

Case studies

ARTP register- available routes

16:30 Close

This meeting is kindly supported by Chiesi UK Ltd, Circassia, Napp Pharmaceuticals Ltd and Orion Pharma UK Ltd by the purchase of an exhibition stand.