

The Wounded Healer in times of COVID: looking after each other through adversity
Thursday 23 July 2020: 12.30 – 3.30pm

DRAFT PROGRAMME

- 12.30 – 12.40pm      Introduction and welcome
Dr Clare Gerada, NHS Practitioner Health medical director and Dr David Wrigley, BMA deputy council chair
- 12.40 – 1.10pm      The pandemic imagination: between science, history and public health
Mark Honigsbaum, City University London lecturer in journalism and author of 'The Pandemic Century: One hundred years of panic, hysteria and hubris'
- 1.10 – 1.40pm      International perspective: the Barcelona experience
Dr Gustavo Tolchinsky, internal medicine specialist and Barcelona Medical Association secretary
- 1.40 – 2.10pm      Supporting healthcare staff's mental health during COVID-19
Professor Neil Greenberg, professor of defence mental health, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London
- 2.10 – 2.20pm      BREAK: music from NHS Chorus-19 led by Anna Lapwood
- 2.20 – 2.50pm      Breakout sessions: attendees to select one from the below

Moral injury

Professor Neil Greenberg, professor of defence mental health, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London

Rainbows: Responses and Representations over time to the trauma of COVID-19

Ms Jennifer Davids, adult, child and adolescent psychoanalyst, British Psychoanalytical Society

Bereavement and loss

Dr Eleanor Cole, consultant psychiatrist and Dr Claire Gallagher, GP and cognitive behavioural therapist, NHS Practitioner Health

Survival and psychological defences employed

Dr Jo Stubley, consultant medical psychotherapist, psychoanalyst and lead clinician, Tavistock Trauma Service, Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust

Protecting our colleagues: BAME doctors and IMGs

Professor JS Bamrah, consultant psychiatrist, Greater Manchester Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust

Protecting our colleagues: junior doctors

Dr Josie Cheetham, BMA Welsh junior doctors committee chair and Dr Matt Tuck, BMA UK JDC deputy chair

Protecting our colleagues: retired doctors returning to work

Professor Maureen Baker, Professional Record Standards Body chair and former RCGP chair

- 2.50 – 3.30pm      Panel discussion: learning from COVID-19
Chaired by Dr Clare Gerada and Dr David Wrigley
Professor Michael Myers, professor of clinical psychiatry, SUNY Downstate Health Sciences University, Brooklyn, New York
The Rt Hon Anna Soubry, former MP, criminal barrister and journalist

- 3.30pm      Close