

An invitation to attend the Virtual Somerset GP Teacher Workshop on Friday the 14th May, 2021 from 9:30-12:00

Dear colleagues,

We are excited to offer you an invitation to attend the Virtual Somerset GP Teacher Workshop on Friday the 14th May from 9:30-12:00.

This workshop is for you if you are interested in finding out more about teaching University of Bristol medical students in the 2021-22 academic year.

The workshop will cover:

- An overview of all UoB student teaching in practice
- Why you can't afford not to teach - information on our new teaching packages: a contract providing guaranteed teaching income with higher payment rates
- Generic teaching skills including feedback giving
- Handling student concerns

If you would like to attend, please email phc-teaching@bristol.ac.uk to confirm your attendance.

We will be in contact with those who are attending closer to the time with further information and a link to join the event.

If you have any questions in advance please email andy.eaton@nhs.net or laurencehuntley@hotmail.com

Best wishes

Simon, Laurence & Andy

Dr Simon Thornton, GP Engagement Lead and Year 3 GP Lead, University of Bristol
Dr Laurence Huntley, Somerset Academy GP Lead
Dr Andy Eaton, Clinical Lead for Education and Training, Symphony Healthcare Services and Somerset Training Hub Fellow
