

Friday Forums – Some Dates for September, October & November

Dear Colleagues

Please see details below of some more Friday morning workshops, facilitated by Dr Andy Eaton (SHS Clinical Lead for Education & Training, and Somerset Training Hub Fellow), which will be delivered virtually between 09.30 – 12.30 – all clinicians welcome.

To register interest / book a place please email hannah.rogers8@nhs.net

Date	Topic	Content
24 th September	Remote Consulting – Red Flags, Video and Online Consults	This workshop will explore the use of red flags in remote consultations to make sure we are not missing something serious. We will also discuss situations where video might add something to your remote consultation, and more importantly where it won't! And how to make the most of online consulting, without making more work for everyone.
19 th November	Mental Capacity in Primary Care	A reminder of the principles of the Mental Capacity Act, and how it can be applied to help busy clinicians to <ul style="list-style-type: none">• explore dilemmas around patients who may or may not have capacity• make difficult decisions and benchmark against our peers• explore ways of supporting patients and ourselves when patients make decisions we might deem to be unwise• familiarise colleagues with the best interests checklist and offer a reminder of how ethical principles can help guide our decision making